

I feel it is harmful to the democracy of these United States to limit the choices of its citizens. By allowing large business to quash the freedom of the small business you are creating a monopoly. I would like to see MCN and other small business continue to operate.